Miss Moberly to Become Bride of
Mr. F. C. Morton

Engagement Is Announced by Her Parents—Wedding Date
Has Not Been Set.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Moberly of 350 Park avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Moberly, to Mr. Franklin Craig Morton of Baltimore. Miss Moberly attended the Porter school at Fairport, N. Y., and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Morton is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Franklin J. Morton of Baltimore. He served during the war as an ensign in the navy, and is now with the Standard Oil Company of Tulsa, Okla. The wedding date has not been set.

The engagement has been announced by Miss Gladys Elizabeth O'Brien of the Hendrix school, Rockford, Ill., and the mother, Mrs. Thomas D'Arcy Osborne of Rockford, Ill.

Miss O'Brien is a graduate of St. Elizabeth's Academy, Convent Station, N. J. She served with the Knights of Columbus Overseas Department during the war.

Mr. Osborne is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D'Arcy Osborne, Rockford, Ill., and is a member of the firm of Williams & Osborn, Chicago. The wedding will take place on July 6 at the Chapel of Notre Dame, Morningtide Drive and 114th street.

Mr. Elton Alton Smith of Smithville, Ill., is the bride's engagement partner. His sister, Miss Lou Genovese Smith, is married to Mr. Edmund Early Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Barrett of New York. Miss Smith is a daughter of the late Mrs. M. J. Alton Smith, and was graduated from the University of Mount St. Vincent on the Hudson, and from a private school at Bryn Mawr. Mr. Barrett was graduated from Georgetown University. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army, and served on the staff of Major-General Hugh L. Scott, U. S. A. when the latter was in command of Camp Dix. His father, Mr. W. M. Barrett, is president of the Adams Express Co.

Mrs. Katherine C. Kellett of 331 1/2 Union street, Brooklyn, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Henrietta L. Kellett, to Mr. Ludwig Louis Kohn, a son of the late Mr. S. Kohn. The wedding will take place yesterday in the home of its parents.

The wedding is to take place in September.

Chilton—Schoonmaker.
Special to THE SUN and New York Herald.
KINGSTON, N. Y., June 19.—Miss Louise Burt Schoonmaker, youngest daughter of John Davis Schoonmaker of this city, prominent in the ice business on the Hudson and president of a number of corporations, was married here this afternoon to Mr. Edward Chilton, Jr., of Charleston, W. Va., by the Rev. Charles Mercer Hall, son-in-law of Judge Alton B. Parker. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents on the banks of the Hudson.

SEVEN PLAYS END SEASON.

"East Is West" Among Those Closing for Summer.

With the fall of theatre curtains last night seven plays that have enjoyed long runs in the city closed.

One of these was "East Is West," which has been at the Astor Theatre for two years.

The other plays that closed were "My Lady Friends," at the Comedy; "Marjorie Randolph," at the Sign on the Door; "Hudson," "Martindue," at the Eltinge; "Buddies," at the Selwyn, and "His Chinese Wife," at the Belmont.

At the end of the week "Beyond the Harem," at the Little Theatre, and "Shavings," at the Knickerbocker, will close.
